[MATT] Matt Ingebretson

[JAKE] Jake Weisman

[KATE] Late 20s-early 40s, all ethnicities. "Friendly in a sociopathic way," in perfectly tailored black pencil skirt and jacket, she is an executive with Hampton DeVille, one of the largest, most profitable corporations in the world. Kate is breezy, self-centered, unencumbered by any pesky feelings of empathy...SERIES REGULAR (1)

[JOHN] Late 20s-early 40s, all ethnicities. "Kate's male analogue," he is another executive with Hampton DeVille, one of the largest, most profitable corporations in the world. He enjoys the perks of his status, especially the yummy bagels at meetings...SERIES REGULAR (1)

[CHRISTIAN DEVILLE] 40s-60s, all ethnicities, male or female. CEO of Hampton Deville, s/he is the mastermind behind the rise of one of the largest and most profitable corporations in the world. High-strung and quick-tempered, s/he acts like a complete psychopath and no one stands up to her/him. S/He's the kind of wo/man who would hunt humans for sport...RECURRING GUEST STAR ( 5)

[RICHARD] 20s-40s, all ethnicities, male or female. S/He's a chubby girl/guy working in the Social Media Department of Hampton DeVille, easy-going, but lonely. Richard keeps track of every party in the building, giving her/him access to plenty of cake. S/He's kind of surprised by the all the hoopla surrounding her/his Tweet, then snaps when fired for the mis-step...GUEST STAR (17)

[BARON] 20s-30s, all ethnicities. Cool but intense, justifiably egotistical, he is a "Social. Media. Guru." He takes the helm and solves the Tweeting problem that's causing such a ruckus...GUEST STAR (17)

[PAIGE] Late 20s, all ethnicities. Self-obsessed, she is the receptionist in the Social Media Department. At her desk, she's texting on her phone, surrounded by a dozen framed selfies...GUEST STAR (15)

STORY LINE: Hampton DeVille is a hugely successful soulless corporation, teetering financially after one well-meaning but clueless social media employee sends out an ill-phrased Tweet...
