

SPENCER

Shut up Billy. You got us into this.

BILLY

And who's going to get us out? You?

Spencer looks like he wants to smack Billy but Alice steps in.

ALICE

Hey, enough. It's starting to get dark. We've got maybe an hour or two. What then?

Start

Sam stares at Pennie.

SAM

We've gotta get you off this island, to a hospital.

PENNIE

How you planning to do that? Boat's gone, Leanna...

She takes a swig of the whisky to wash away the grief.

JADE

Dane's video. Said something about buildings near the center of the island. Maybe we head that way, see if we can find a radio, some proper medical supplies.

Sam scans around the busted up camp.

SAM

Worth a try.

(to Pennie)

If we build a stretcher, can you travel?

Pennie looks at him with determination.

PENNIE

Splint my leg, I can move on my own.

SPENCER

What? Are you nuts Sam? She'll just slow us down.

BILLY

What are you saying?

ALICE

So you want to leave her?

SPENCER

You saw what just happened. Gomez's body in the tree? The tracks? Whatever did all this can come on land. We have to get out of here now.

SAM

We're not leaving anyone behind. Help me splint her...

SPENCER

She's not even one of us.

BILLY

You're a cold son of a bitch, you know that?

SPENCER

You know I'm right.

As they argue Pennie reaches down to her other pant leg and pulls a small GUN from an ankle holster.

PENNIE

Hey, HEY!

They all turn to look at her. She's aiming the gun right at Spencer.

PENNIE (CONT'D)

News flash asshole. Whatever that thing is, if it needs a fresh body to feed on I vote for yours.

She cocks the hammer.

SPENCER

Hey, easy now. Let's not get crazy.

PENNIE

Eight years in the Marines, two tours in Afghanistan... Wanna see just how crazy I can get?

Sam steps between Spencer and Pennie's line of fire.

SAM

We're in this together alright? Put the gun away and let us help you.

Start

Pennie considers that for a beat, lowers the gun. Jade breathes a sigh of relief.
